

SOCIETY

NE of the most delightful post-Lenten events so far was the dance last evening at the University club, at which the members of the club entertained a large company of friends as well as all the members of the club. The dance was given by the members of the club, and many flowers added to the attractiveness of the place. The men of the entertainment committee were assisted in receiving their guests by the patronesses—Mrs. William Armstrong, Mrs. Edward S. Perry, Mrs. R. W. Salisbury, Mrs. R. G. Gemmell and Mrs. R. W. Salisbury. A punch was placed in the hall, and here the dancers found refreshment through the evening. Later a delicious supper was served in the ladies' lounge room. A splendid orchestra, stationed behind a screen of palms and ferns, furnished the delightful music through the hours, and till long past midnight the merry company enjoyed the dance.

Mrs. Austin K. Tiernan and her friend, Mrs. J. H. Bennett, entertained a company of over fifty friends yesterday afternoon at a delightful tea at the Tiernan home on Brigham street. The house was filled with flowers, white and green, and the colors used. White snappers, the parlors and in the dining room the decorations with the white and green were a most effective decoration. The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. Lucy Ryan, and at the tea which followed came Mrs. Elizabeth Barrett and Mrs. P. T. Farnsworth. Mr. poured tea, while Miss Ethel Mount, Mrs. Mary and Mrs. George Huddleston assisted.

Mrs. W. H. Blinz and her daughter, Mrs. C. D. Dally, entertained a company of friends at the first of two bridge parties at the Blinz home in compliment to Mrs. Harry Blinz and Miss Edith Blinz. Twelve tables were filled with players and later many more came for tea. When Mrs. J. B. Whitfield and Mrs. R. Brown were present, Mrs. W. S. Anderson, the Misses Martha and Echo Henderson, the little Misses Mary and Evelyn, Mrs. Dorothy Marioneaux and Mrs. Mark W. Lillard assisted. The same tables will entertain again today.

That promises to be a most enjoyable event of this evening will be the dance party at Rowland hall, which faculty and pupils of the school are giving for the benefit of the Orphans' Home. The whole school will be turned out for the occasion, and a perfect bower of blossoming ferns will form the great fruit trees in the hall. Booths and tea tables will be arranged around the open courtyard and also in the gymnasium, and the faculty and the young girls will do entertaining.

The Buskins will meet tonight at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester D. Freed on Brigham street and a new play by E. B. Palmer will be given its first performance by a company composed of Miss Mildred McMillan, Miss Adine McMillan, Miss Lucile Francker, Miss Mary Whitfield, Mrs. Palmer, Lester D. Freed, and S. Critchlow and Fred Smith.

A second affair was given yesterday by Mrs. James Wade as hostess in compliment to Miss Elsie Yeates. Miss Yeates, Calmer and Mrs. Richard Ford. Six tables of bridge were played and a delightful hour was spent at tea. A number more came in to enjoy a perfect bower of blossoming ferns. Miss Jennie Gray and Miss Hazel Johnston assisted in serving, and decorations of yellow spring flowers were used.

The election committee of the Ladies' literary club held a special caucus yesterday afternoon to present for election at the annual meeting in May. The committee is composed of Mrs. W. Benson, Mrs. Charles Watson and Mrs. K. Klingender.

The current events section of the Ladies' literary club held the annual election of officers for the section yesterday afternoon and re-elected Mrs. H. K.

Klingender as chairman of the section, making Mrs. Frank Anderson secretary and Mrs. Arthur Parsons critic.

Mrs. Jake Israel and Mrs. Lee Kahn will entertain the auxiliary to the U. C. T. this afternoon at 254 M street.

There will be no schedule for the day at the Country club today, but a number have planned on spending a part of the day out there on the golf links. The meeting of the entertainment committee set for yesterday morning was postponed till this morning, when it will be held at the home of Miss McGrath.

The Browning section of the Ladies' literary club will be entertained today by Miss Jennings at the home of her sister, Mrs. A. H. Peabody, on Third avenue, the usual 1 o'clock luncheon preceding the study hour.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Vance Lane have moved from 15 E street and are now at home at 21 G street.

The Froebel society has issued invitations for a party to be given this evening in the kindergarten rooms at the university.

Mrs. Bert Twelves of Provo is in the city spending a few days with friends.

Mrs. Arthur Bird was the hostess yesterday at a delightful luncheon for a dozen friends, the affair being in compliment to Mrs. W. G. Sharp.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Evans and their two daughters, Helen and Rose, will leave early in May for an eastern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. McChrystal and Miss Frances McChrystal and the baby daughter are in town from Eureka and are at the Fifth East hotel for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Max W. Kunkley of 445 Twelfth East street have had for their guest the past week Mrs. Walter Franklin Pike, their daughter, who has returned to her home in Twin Falls, Ida. Dr. Pike and Mrs. Pike will be here during the summer, and they contemplate an extended trip east.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles G. Plummer are planning a trip to the northwest to spend several months at sea level. Mr. and Mrs. Will Browne and their little daughter will take the Plummer house and will shortly be at home there.

Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Life have moved and are now at home to their friends at No. 23 Kensington apartments.

Miss Ruby Koerner will entertain this afternoon at an affair for Miss Florence Culmer.

One Conductor Helped Back to Work.

Mr. Wilford Adams is his name, and he writes: "I was confined to my bed with chronic rheumatism and used two bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy with good effect. The third bottle put me on my feet and I resumed work as conductor on the Lexington, Ky., street railway. It will do all you claim in cases of rheumatism." It clears the blood of uric acid. Rev. Mr. Goshen to Talk.

The fourth in the series of "Life Talks" being given by the Young Women's Christian association at the Sunday vesper services will be treated by Rev. Elmer L. Goshen.

These talks have become so popular that the Y. W. C. A. rooms, at 49 South Main street, are inadequate to the numbers in attendance, hence the assembly hall at the university which was so kindly proffered for these talks has been accepted.

Mrs. Gail Mills Dimmitt will have charge of the music for next Sunday. Gentlemen are welcome to these "Life Talks."

INTRODUCTORY DAYS

We have received many words of praise for the new "Patrician" Shoes just received for our INTRODUCTORY DAYS.

Patrician FIT SERVICE

THE TRINITY OF PERFECTION. 'Tis true, for never was there a season when styles were so extravagantly beautiful as right now. Chief among them the new "Patrician" Shoes. Not in beauty and grace alone, but they excel all other shoes for the toe, the heel, the arch, the material, the finish and wearing qualities of the new "Patrician" shoes. They leave nothing to be desired. Dainty kid oxfords—girlish gun metal pumps—beautiful patent leather models.
